This is an 'on request' facility available only to MRSI Corporate members:

- a. Your company would need to make a request to MRSI at info@mrsi.co.in to enable this facility and give an undertaking to pay for all the entries submitted using the company specific code.
- b. MRSI would create and activate a unique code for the company and send it via email.
- c. The requester can give this code can use this code for all their company entries.
- d. When this code is entered in the general information screen after selecting "Bill to company" and authenticated, the user can proceed to submit the entry and will not need to make the payment at this point.
- e. After entries are closed, MRSI would consolidate all entries received using the company specific code and invoice the company for the total amount.

After submitting entries

Q. How do I get a copy of my submission?

A. After the checkout, you will have the option to download your submission in PDF format. Please save it in your local system.

Q. How do I know that the form is submitted?

A. You will receive a confirmation email. Please ensure that you have it in your inbox. If not, check your SPAM folder and lastly, contact MRSI for assistance – info@mrsi.co.in.

Q. What happens after I submit my entry?

A. All entry pdfs are forwarded to a jury panel of senior professionals.

Q. Can the entries be disqualified?

A. Yes, the entries can get disqualified due to the following reasons:

1. Work done is not in the reference period.
2. Entry does not meet the award category definition requirements.
3. Entries that involve global or local organization tools or models or programmes must clearly demonstrate that the team has done more than just implementing an organizational initiative. Entries that appear to be implementation of wider initiatives, rather than the work of the authors risk disqualification.
4. Entries should not have been presented previously – in case fresh work has been done on a previously presented case, tool or technology, you MUST mention this and elaborate on exactly what has been done new.

Q. Would an award be given in all categories?

A. This will be a decision of the organisers and the Jury. In case it is felt that all entries in a particular category do not meet the criteria, no award would be given for that particular category.

Q. Are materials submitted to the Golden Key Awards public?

A. All entries submitted to the awards program become the property of the MRSI Golden Key Awards and may be used for promotional purposes.

Q. What if there is a part of my submission that my client or I do not want disclosed to the public?

A. Please DO NOT include confidential information with your submission.
